Re: Dikambi v. City University of New York, et al.
United States District Court Case No. 19-cv-9937 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

I write jointly on behalf of plaintiff Judith Sandrine Dikambi (“Ms. Dikambi”) and Defendant Carlton Jama Adams (“Adams”) in the above-referenced matter to provide a report on the status of completing the settlement agreement and to request an additional thirty (30) days before the matter is closed. The initial 30 day period expires on March 15, 2024.

Mr. Adams’s counsel and I have exchanged written drafts of the agreement. The settlement terms include language relating to the City University of NY (“CUNY”) that require approval as well, and Mr. Adams’s counsel has forwarded the draft to CUNY for comment. Counsel is awaiting final comment on the draft from CUNY.

In addition, as a condition of the settlement, it has been agreed that the written Settlement Agreement be filed on the public record and “so ordered” by the Court. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request an additional 30 day period in which to complete and file the Settlement Agreement in this matter. The parties are confident that no additional time will be necessary.
